Pontiac Weaving Corporation,
Cumberland, RI; Notice of Revised
Determination on Reconsideration

On February 14, 1995, the Department issued an Affirmative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration for the former workers of the subject firm. The notice will soon be published in the Federal Register.

The subject plant ceased operations in September 1994 and all production workers were laid off at that time.

New findings on reconsideration show that Pontiac Weaving contracted for a manufacturer who owns a major share of Pontiac Weaving Corporation. The manufacturer increased its company imports in 1994 compared to 1993.

Conclusion

After careful consideration of the new facts obtained on reconsideration, it is concluded that the former workers of the Pontiac Weaving Corporation in Cumberland, Rhode Island were adversely affected by increased imports of articles that are like or directly competitive with those produced at the subject firm.

In accordance with the provisions of the Act, I make the following revised determination for the former workers of the Pontiac Weaving Corporation in Cumberland, Rhode Island.

"All workers and former workers of Pontiac Weaving Corporation in Cumberland, Rhode Island who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 21, 1993 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, DC, this 17th day of February 1995.

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance applicable to all workers of the subject firm.
